

Benjamin Weaver was born in 1971 in Montgomery County, PA. He received a BA in Literature in 1993 from Gordon College, Wenham MA.

After college, Ben worked in various art production jobs both on site and in the studio. These included fabrication and installation of stained glass, bronze sculpture (both model making and metal work), and props. More recently, Ben worked for several years in art handling and exhibit installation.

Ben is a process oriented artist who has worked in bronze, oil, watercolor, direct wood carving, and acrylic painting.

After 17 years working in the art field across the Delaware Valley, Ben is now painting full time. He currently lives in Abington, PA.
